BRITISH SCHOOL AT ROME

GETTING TO THE BSR

Our address in Italian is pronounced : “Via Gramshee sessanto’uno”

And is found: “una traversa di Viale Bruno Buozzi, Parioli, tra la Facoltà di Architettura e la Galleria Nazionale d’Arte Moderna”

(a) From Stazione Roma Termini (main railway station)

Taxi: This will cost approximately 15 euro. Take only an official yellow or white taxi cab from the rank in front of the station (straight ahead from the platforms, through the booking hall and on the left-hand side of the piazza); ignore touts for unofficial taxis.

Public Transport: In general public transport runs between 05.30 and 23.30. Tickets cost 1.50 euro and are valid for 100 minutes on all buses and one trip on the Metropolitana. There are no buses which go directly from Termini to the BSR so taking the Metro is quickest.

By METRO The entrances to the Metropolitana are marked by a large white “M” on a red background. Buy a ticket from the machines, feed it into a turnstile with a green light on it and follow the signs to LINEA B, (blue line) direction REBIBBIA. Get off at POLICLINICO.

Then go up onto the street (Viale Regina Margherita) and catch either a 3 (“Dir: Piazza Thorwaldsen”) or 19 (“Dir: Piazza Risorgimento”). Both stop at the Galleria Nazionale d’Arte Moderna, which is next to the School.

(b) From Fiumicino (Leonardo da Vinci) Airport

Train: Turn right as you exit arrivals and follow the blue signs to STAZIONE FS (train). Tickets can be bought from machines, the ticket office or the tobacconist in the station. Tickets must be stamped in the machines at the barrier to the platforms to validate them.

There is a direct express link from the Airport to the Stazione Termini, which takes approximately 30 minutes and costs around 14 euro. Trains run from 06.36 hrs at roughly half-hourly intervals, leaving every .06 and .36 minutes past the hour, until 23.36 hrs. At Termini take a taxi or metro (as above). Unfortunately the platform at Termini is rather a long way from the main station – allow 15 minutes to transfer from train to metro/taxi rank.

Taxi: If you prefer to take a taxi from Fiumicino to the BSR, the cost will be approximately 50 euro if you do not pre-book. Be sure to agree the cost in advance and use a Rome registered taxi, NOT a Fiumicino one.

(c) From Ciampino Airport

There are currently several companies running a comparable bus service into the centre of Rome, including Terravision, Sitbusshuttle or ATRAL (tickets for Terravision should be available either on the plane or on arrival at the airport for about 8 euro one way, 14 euro return. Sitbusshuttle and ATRAL tickets should be available on the bus for between 4,50 to 6 euro one way). The buses depart at regular intervals and arrive in Via Marsala or Via Giolitti, both very near the Termini Station.

Otherwise, take the bus which links the airport with the Metropolitana, Linea A: the station is called ANAGNINA. The bus runs approximately every 30 or 60 minutes, depending on the time of day, between 06.50 hrs and 23.40 hrs - tickets can be bought on the bus. Metro tickets cost 1.50 euro. Take the metro from ANAGNINA to SAN GIOVANNI. Then take the 3 tram ("dir: Piazza Thorwaldsen" which terminates outside the Galleria Nazionale d'Arte Moderna).

Taxi: If you prefer to take a taxi from Ciampino to the BSR, the cost will be approximately 50 euro if you do not pre-book. Be sure to agree the cost in advance and use a Rome registered taxi.
