

BALSDON FELLOWSHIP HUGH LAST FELLOWSHIP 2019–20

THE BRITISH SCHOOL AT ROME is a centre of interdisciplinary research excellence in the Mediterranean supporting the full range of arts, humanities and social sciences. We create an environment for work of international standing and impact from Britain and the Commonwealth, and a bridge into the intellectual and cultural heart of Rome and Italy

The Balsdon Fellowship is offered for research on any aspect of the social, religious, political and economic cultures of the Italian peninsula, and their wider textual, visual and material dissemination and reception from prehistory to the modern period

The Hugh Last Fellowship is offered for research on classical antiquity (excluding archaeological fieldwork and work on Roman Britain)

The Balsdon and Hugh Last Fellowships offer board and lodging at the BSR for 3 months (between late September 2019 and June 2020)

These Fellowships are open to established scholars, normally in post in a UK university*. In addition to pursuing personal research that will contribute to one of the BSR's current research themes, the Fellows are expected to take an interest in the work of other award-holders at the BSR, particularly those in fields close to their own. They will be requested to give a public lecture.

The BSR acknowledges the support of the British Academy towards its award scheme.

Closing date for applications: Thursday 17 January 2019

* A UK Higher Education Institution/University is a recognised body for a higher learning institution as defined by the UK government (<https://www.gov.uk/check-a-university-is-officially-recognised/recognised-bodies>).

General conditions for the Balsdon and Hugh Last Fellowships

1. These Fellowships are open to established scholars, normally in post in a UK university*.
2. Applicants must be British or Commonwealth citizens; or must have studied at postgraduate level in a Higher Education Institution in the UK, having completed by October 2018 not less than four years of residence in the UK; or must hold a post in a Higher Education Institution* in the UK. Proof of nationality and/or residency may be required. Preference may be given to applicants working at or attached to a university in the UK.
3. Applications must be submitted on the appropriate application form.
4. Residencies will be tenable in the academic year (late September–June) 2019–20.
5. The BSR is committed to offering opportunities to the widest possible range of projects and people. Normally two successive awards for the same project will not be considered.
6. Fellows, Scholars and Awardees are expected to abide by the BSR's Research Ethics Policy (<http://www.bsr.ac.uk/site2014/wp-content/uploads/BSR-Research-Ethics-Policy-September-2014.pdf>).
7. Fellows are required to live at the BSR.
8. Partners may be accommodated for strictly limited periods by prior agreement, but must pay for their board and lodging at the BSR's prevailing rates. Children cannot be accommodated.
9. Successful applicants will be required to take out medical insurance for the duration of their tenure.
10. Fellows are required to submit a report on their research within two months of the end of their award, and are requested to keep the BSR informed of future progress.
11. Fellows are expected to give Papers of the British School at Rome first refusal on any papers arising from the research undertaken at the BSR.
12. Fellows are asked to donate a copy of any publications arising from their research whilst holding a BSR award to the BSR's Library.

The BSR reserves the right to alter any aspect of the Fellowships.

Selection criteria

In making an appointment to an award the Faculty of Archaeology, History and Letters will assess all applications using the following set of criteria:

1. The academic merit of the applicant judged by his/her previous record and references, including her/his prospects of making a future contribution to scholarship.
2. The inherent academic significance and interest of the project proposed, and the feasibility of completion to the timetable stated.
3. The relationship of the project to the BSR's current research themes.
4. The suitability of the project for the BSR, bearing in mind its location, resources and access to resources.
5. The suitability of the candidate to contribute to the academic community of the BSR and the need to ensure a reasonable balance between different disciplines and chronological periods within the BSR's academic community.
6. The role of the Fellowships, Scholarships and Awards in promoting Italian studies in Britain and the Commonwealth.

The Faculty's decisions are final. Feedback cannot be given on unsuccessful applications.

Equal opportunities

The British School at Rome is committed to a policy of equal opportunities in its appointments and awards policy and in the way it offers access to all its facilities and services. The object of the policy is to ensure that no applicant or award-holder is treated more or less favourably than any other on grounds of (for example) race, colour, gender, religion, marital status, social background, disability, and age (except where the conditions of the awards specify otherwise).

Access statement

It is the policy of the British School at Rome to offer full or equivalent access to all users. The BSR aims to support full participation by residents in all aspects of its academic and social life. The BSR is a small institution but will make available its resources, staff and equipment to address the needs of staff, award-holders or visitors with disabilities wherever it can.

Applicants with special needs are requested to contact the Registrar before submitting their application to discuss requirements.

Privacy Policy

The BSR is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office and adheres to the General Data Protection Registration principles. The BSR's Privacy Policy can be viewed at <http://www.bsr.ac.uk/privacy-policy>. Applicants should be aware that information that they provide will be stored in electronic form. It will be provided to those who assess applications and to staff of the BSR, and will be used to compile published lists of award-holders.

For more information on the BSR: www.bsr.ac.uk