The Invention of Rome: Biondo Flavio’s Roma triumphans and its worlds
A three-day conference at the British School at Rome
26 – 28 November 2014

Draft Programme (subject to change)
All sessions take place in the Lecture Theatre
Participants must complete a registration form prior to the conference

Wednesday 26 November

18.00 Public Lecture: James Hankins: Biondo on the Roman Republic.
19.30 Rinfresco
20.00 Dinner

Thursday 27 November

10.00 Welcome Coffee
10.30 Welcome
11.30 Agata Pincelli: librariis certatim transcribere contendendis: the manuscript tradition and the early reception of Biondo Flavio’s Roma triumphans.
13.00 Lunch
14.15 Giusepppe Marcellino: Un excursus umanistico sulle letterature dell’antichità: Biondo Flavio e i classici (Rom. triumph. IV, 96-100).
15.00 Frances Muecke: pluribus ex artibus studiisque colligitur: the genre(s) and making of Roma triumphans
15.45 Afternoon break
16.15 David Rundle: Flavio Biondo, European humanist
Friday 28 November

10.00  Welcome Coffee

10.30  Valerio Sanzotta: Biondo Flavio on food, drinks and banquets: literary strategies and use of ancient sources in Book 8 of the Roma triumphans.

11.45  Peter Fane-Saunders: Pyres, Villas and Mansions: Architectural Fragments in Flavio Biondo’s Roma triumphans

12.45  Lunch

13.45  Maurizio Campanelli: Roma triumphans Book IX: a humanistic querelle des anciens et des moderns?

14.00  Anne Raffarin: Andrea Fulvio lecteur de Rome Triomphante

14.45  Paul Gwynne: The Reception of Biondo Flavio Roma Triumphans in the late Fifteenth Century

15.30  Afternoon break

16.00  William Stenhouse: Biondo and Late Renaissance Antiquarianism

16.45  Concetta Bianca: Summary and Conclusion

17.00  Rinfresco