International Conference

Roman Port Societies through the evidence of inscriptions

The British School at Rome 29–30 January 2015

Organized by Pascal Arnaud and Simon Keay as part of the ERC Advanced Grant funded Rome’s Mediterranean Ports Project in conjunction with the British School at Rome

Thursday 29 January

9.00–9.05  Christopher Smith (BSR) Introduction and Welcome

9.05–9.20  Simon Keay (BSR; Southampton) The Portuslimen Project

9.20–9.55  Pascal Arnaud (Lumière-Lyon2; Institut Universitaire de France) Introduction to the Conference

9.55–10.00 Questions

Theme 1:  Cosmopolitanism, its forms, its institutional organization (foreign civic sanctuaries, stationes, and civic or provincial identities), and its role in port-based activities

10.00–10.40  Dirk Steuernagel (Regensburg) "Orientali” a Delo e a Puteoli: modi di organizzazione e di integrazione sociali

10.40–11.10  Coffee

11.10–11.50  Taco Terpstra (Northwestern) Religious Identity, the Imperial Cult, and Roman Inter-Community Trade

11.50–12.30  Sabine Panzram (Hamburg) Living like a Cosmopolitan

12.30–12.45  Moderator: Federico De Romanis (Tor Vergata)

12.45–13.00  Theme Questions and Discussion (led by Moderator)

13.00–14.00 Lunch Break

Theme 2:  Social interaction: the collegia, the copora, civil and Imperial administration, upper classes
14.00–14.40 Dorothea Rohde (Bielefeld) Roman port societies and their collegia: Differences and Similarities between the associations of Ostia and Ephesos

14.40–15.20 Nicolas Tran (Poitiers; Institut Universitaire de France) Les bateliers et leurs corpora dans les grands ports de l'Occident romain

15.20–16.00 Pascal Arnaud (Lumiére-Lyon 2; Institut Universitaire de France) Municipal authority, central authority, and euergetists at work at the port of Ephesus

16.00–16.30 Tea

16.30–16.45 Moderator: Simon Keay (BSR; Southampton)

16.45–17.15 Theme Questions and Discussion (led by Moderator)

18.00 Rinfresco

Friday 30 January

Theme 3: Sociology and the social legibility of the merchants, the ship-owners and the other key actors in port life

9.00–9.40 Jean-Jacques Aubert (Neuchatel) Les acteurs juridiques de la vie portuaire

9.40–10.20 Michel Christol (Paris 1, Panthéon-Sorbonne) Ports, routes et trafics: l’apport de l’épigraphie

10.20–11.00 Hélène Rougier (Aix-Marseille) Métiers portuaires et hiérarchies sociales. Étude comparée à partir des inscriptions d’Arles, Narbonne, Lyon, Ostie-Portus et Aquilée

11.00–11.30 Coffee

11.30–11.45 Moderator: André Tchernia (Centre Camille Jullian, Aix-Marseille)

11.45–12.15 Theme Questions and Discussion (led by Moderator)

13.00–14.00 Lunch Break

Theme 4: The character and structure of commercial networks and the role of the categories of performers within them

14.00–14.40 Koen Verboven (Ghent) Firms, family, friends, guilds: how open were Roman trade networks?

14.40–15.20 Catherine Virlouvet (EFR; Centre Camille Jullian, Aix-Marseille) La société de l’entrepôt
15.20–16.00  Marc Mayer (Barcelona) La société portuaire de Narona

16.00–16.30  Tea

16.30–16.45  Moderator: José Remesal Rodríguez (CEIPAC; Barcelona)

16.45–17.15  Theme Discussion and Questions (led by Moderator)

Concluding Overviews

17.15–17.45  Nicholas Purcell (Oxford)

17.45–18.15  Concluding Discussion